TIPTON, IND., August 10, 1852.

EDITOR OF STATE SENTINEL:—The Democratic country Convention met in the Court House in Tipton, on Monday the 9th inst.

Judge Joseph Price was called to the Chair, and C.

E. Shipley elected Secretary.

The following resolutions were then adopted:

Resolved, That the candidates for the different offices before this convention, approunce their pages and the pelore this convention, approunce their pages and the process of the Constitutional Convention, and of the last Legislature. It is by no means singular that they should find fault with the former, for they opposed the holding of a Convention at all, and before this convention, approunce their pages and the voted against almost every selector referred against almost every referred against almost every referred against almost every referred agai before this convention, announce their names and the offices for which they are candidates, and that each one be required to pledge himself, either in person or by his nothing with which they can find a word of fault, ex-

Three cheers for Pierce and King and three more for Wright and Willard, and the people moved en masse to the grove to hear Messrs. Willard and Williams.

Mr. Willard delighted his heaven with his spirital strength of the legitimate business of legislation, or were they consuming the time of the Senate in making bunkum speeches, and shedding crocodile tears over a pretty picture, which had been purchased in a pot-house in Mexico; or in squabbling over the fat matter of a printing bill? eleven years, during which he appears to have pondered deeply on the subject, and had so far "methodized" his views, as to be able to bring out in 1844, the form of a bill, for enactment by Congress, for the total exclusion of foreigners from the right of suffrage.

To they imagine the people have forgotten all these things, and that they will be ready thus soon to return to a dynasty which they hurled from power with indignation? 158-20 | This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, Curing after nature's own method, by nature's own agent, the Gastric Juice. Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

158-20 | Appendix of the Food, the purifying, preserving, and stimulating agent of the Stomach and intestines. It is extracted from the digestive stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the sid of this preparation, the pains and evilst of indigestion and dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptice Consumption, supposed to be on the every of the grave. The scienufic evil.

acrid was it, that when it came in contact with the skin, the effect was the same as that of boiling water.

After any gentle exercise, especially in warm weather, parts of the body became covered with spets of a dark red or purple color, and were very painful and tender; in a short time these spots would be covered with minute blisters, which broke, and discharged, then dried up, forming a seab which would in a few days come off, leaving an angry and painful sore, looking much like a burn. This would be a long time in healing—frequently months. At one time it appeared on the feet and ankles, running much the same course as it had done on the other parts of her body, except that in this instance it was aggravated by exercise. These sores, moreover, assumed the character of bad ulcers, and so inflamed, that for months see was unable to walk. The deep scars left by them remain to this day. It has affected her breast to that degree that she was unable to aurse either of her last three children. Often she has been in ble to nurse either of her last three children. Often she has been in such distress from this disease, that for weeks she has been able to obtain but little sleep or rest, and has often said that her distress was
